Faculty members continually keep abreast of current pedagogical trends by participating in the Near East/South Asia Council of Overseas Schools (NESA) conferences, seminars, and other continuing education courses. Additionally, staff development opportunities are sponsored by the Office of Overseas Schools in conjunction with the US Department of Education.

Co-Curricular Program

Our high school academic program is enhanced by a comprehensive co-curricular program and includes Junior and Varsity sports (Soccer, Volleyball, Basketball and Softball). We are members in three different activities conferences which provide traveling and hosting opportunities for student teams. Other academic and recreational organizations include: National Honor Society, Student Council, Environmental Club, Community Service organizations, Young Women's Association, Theater, Literary Magazine, Academic Games, Destination Imagination, and many student interest clubs.

Week Without Walls

The "Week Without Walls" program is a curriculum-based program that provides students with important transformational experiences. AISJ students have the option of traveling abroad, participating in local service learning programs, enrichment courses or career internships. These week-long courses are reflected on the student's transcript as a graded course and receive one quarter of a credit.
