ENSEMBLES & VISUAL MEDIA

Arts & Creative

Rehearse, perform, paint, publish and film — the stages, studios and newsrooms of AISJ.

String Orchestra 01

Mondays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

A sophisticated and collaborative musical ensemble designed for students dedicated to mastering classical and contemporary repertoires. Members engage in weekly rehearsals emphasizing technical precision, tonal quality, and rhythmic harmony, culminating in high-profile concerts and performances.

ADVISOR

Sylvia DelosSantos

Press Club 02

Mondays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

A student-led space capturing moments, stories, and experiences that make the school year special through photography, writing, and graphic design. The club's primary goal is to preserve campus memories and produce creative publications reflecting on the AISJ experience.

ADVISOR

Scott Parsons

Drama Production Club 03

Mon & Wed 3:00 – 4:30 PM Show: Dec 7, 2026

Designed for students passionate about theater and interested in participating in the annual school production and regional festivals. Selective membership based on audition readiness. Rehearsals require high commitment to acting, stagecraft, set production, and character development.

ADVISOR

Asmaa El Ghendi

Film Club 04

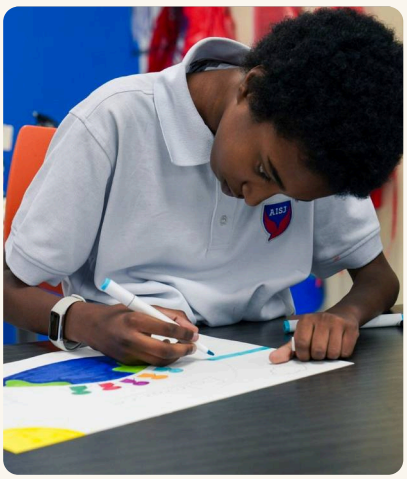

Thursdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

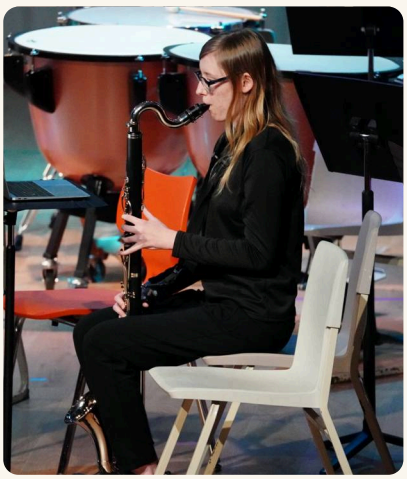

Offers cinema enthusiasts a platform to explore screenwriting, cinematography, video editing, and film analysis. Members collaborate on short film projects, study directorial styles, and learn technical mechanics of visual storytelling to produce original digital media content.

ADVISOR

Anurag Singh

STUDENT GOVERNANCE, PUBLIC SPEAKING, ADVOCACY & MENTORSHIP

Leadership & Communication

Speak up, step up and bring people together — governance, diplomacy, debate, advocacy and mentorship.

HS Student Council 05

Sundays (Bi-Weekly) 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Provides scholars with structured opportunities to develop leadership, communication, and organizational skills. Council members represent the student body, voice student ideas to administration, and organize major campus initiatives and spirit events.

ADVISOR

Rabia Al Luqman

Model United Nations (MUN) 06

Mondays 3:05 – 4:00 PM All Year

In this premier diplomacy program, student leaders direct delegates in simulating international relations and UN parliamentary procedures. Members conduct policy research, draft resolutions, master debate, and prepare for competitive international conferences.

ADVISOR

Tim De Weerd

Debate Club 07

Mondays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

A competitive forum for students looking to hone their critical thinking, public speaking, and argumentation skills. Members practice constructing logical arguments and swift rebuttals on pressing global and social issues to prepare for formal debate rounds and forums.

ADVISORS

Mark Spencer & Umbareen

Ammar

TEDxYouth@AISJ 08

Wednesdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

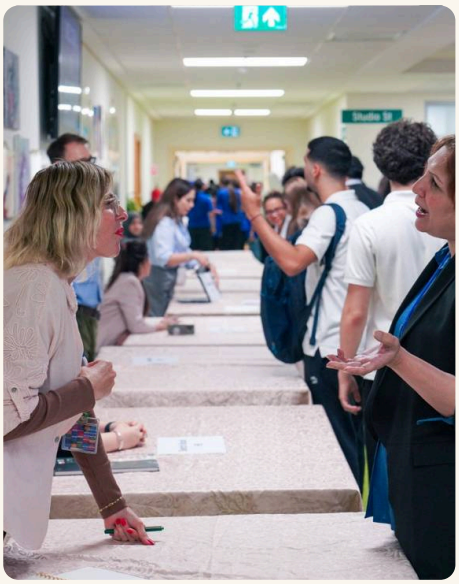

Responsible for organizing and hosting independently licensed TEDx events that spark meaningful discussions across campus. Members handle speaker recruitment, speech coaching, stage production, and event logistics under the "ideas worth spreading" philosophy.

ADVISORS

Ginna Schultz & Robert Rinaldo

Leadership & Communication (cont.)

Serve, mentor and empower — student-led networks that lift others as they grow.

Saudi Youth for Community Service & Leadership 09

Mondays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

The first student-led community service network in Jeddah for ages 13–17, providing hands-on experience through volunteering, internships, and charity projects. Members earn certified community service hours while contributing to Saudi Vision 2030 and UN SDGs.

ADVISOR

Mahmoud Mostafa

Project 2nd Half 10

Sundays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Focuses on mentorship, personal development, and student empowerment by guiding upperclassmen as they mentor younger peers. The program helps underclassmen navigate academic, social, and personal transitions during secondary school.

ADVISOR

Mahmoud Mostafa

Youth Women's Organization (YWO) 11

Sundays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Dedicated to empowering young women through leadership workshops, community outreach, and discussions surrounding female representation and career mentorship. Members organize collaborative initiatives building confidence and gender equity.

ADVISOR

Katia ElKassem

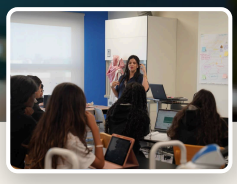

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING & MATHEMATICS

STEM & Academic

From telescopes to circuit boards to honor societies — curiosity, rigor and hands-on discovery.

Mathletes / Math Support Club 12

Sun – Tue 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

A peer-to-peer academic initiative dedicated to demystifying complex mathematical concepts and building problem-solving confidence. High-achieving scholars act as tutors, assisting peers with foundational algebra through advanced calculus in a supportive setting.

ADVISOR

Ghia Ezzeddine

AI Initiative Club 13

Wednesdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Empowers students to explore cutting-edge technology through hands-on artificial intelligence projects, prompt engineering, and machine learning ethics. Members build practical AI tools, evaluate societal impacts of tech, and host interactive showcases.

ADVISOR

Mubeen Yaqub

National Honor Society (NHS) 14

Mon & Wed 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Recognizes scholars demonstrating outstanding performance in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Members organize school-wide service projects and academic peer-tutoring, maintaining high academic and ethical standards.

ADVISOR

Bennett Adkinson

Mechatronics Club 15

Mon & Wed 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Combines mechanical engineering, electronics, and computer science to give students hands-on experience building smart systems, robotics, and automated devices. Members learn essential coding, circuitry design, and fabrication techniques.

ADVISOR

Bennett Adkinson

Astronomy Club 16

Sundays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Invites students to explore the cosmos through night-sky telescope viewings, astrophysics discussions, and space exploration research, fostering a shared curiosity about celestial phenomena and planetary science.

ADVISOR

Mark Spencer

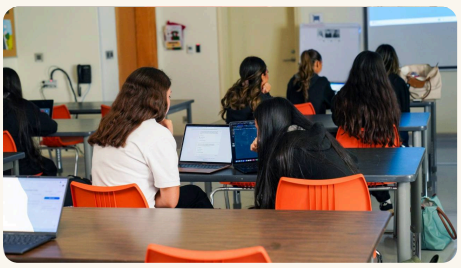

Computer Science & Tech Club 17

Tuesdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

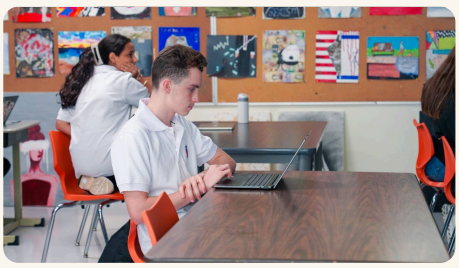

Designed for aspiring programmers and software developers to collaborate on coding projects, web development, and algorithm design. Members practice programming languages, explore hardware fundamentals, and build custom digital applications.

ADVISOR

David Ayliffe

FINANCE & CAREER READINESS

Business & Social Impact

Real-world case studies, markets and STEM careers — business acumen starts here.

DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) 18

Wednesdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Prepares emerging student leaders and entrepreneurs for career fields in marketing, finance, hospitality, and management. Students solve real-world case studies and practice pitch presentations to develop practical business acumen.

ADVISOR

Ghia Ezzeddine

Investment & Financial Literacy Club 19

Wednesdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Equips students with financial literacy and real-world market strategies. Through stock market simulations, portfolio tracking, and foundational lessons on valuation, members learn to analyze financial trends and manage risk responsibly.

ADVISOR

Mariam Alzohbi

METS (Medical, Engineering, Tech & Science) 20

Thursdays 3:00 – 4:00 PM All Year

Connects students interested in STEM careers through interdisciplinary projects, research explorations, and professional speaker sessions, applying scientific and technological concepts to real-world challenges.

ADVISOR
